

Mrs. Candace Melissa Carter

January 6, 1983 - August 3, 2015

“Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning” Psalms 30:5

On the morning of January 6, 1983, God descended one of his Angels, Ms. Candace Carter was born the to Anthony Price and Late Edwina Carter-Stewart, (Marcus). Candace was a soft kind hearted person, with a smile and laughter that could brighten anyone’s darkest day. She was a mother, a granddaughter, a sister and much more.

Candace attended Tri-Cities High School in East Point, GA and Morgan County High School. Candace had a passion for cooking, one of her specialist was grilling. She constantly looked for different ways to better her receipts and perfected her craft. Candace was known for such a soft voice, big personality and most of all her laughter. Her favorite thing in this world beside her kids and family was a cell phone and a camera. She loved loud vibrant colors and food network. She will truly be missed just thinking about all the good laughs will be comforting within itself. She loved to have a good long drawn out conversation with good people. You said it best Candace “I’m Fabulous”

She leaves to cherish her memories: fiancée Neal Rivers, of Madison, Georgia; Four beautiful children: Tyler Carter, Tyson Carter, Kayla Reid-Carter and Katleen Carter all of Madison, Georgia; A loving mother, Mrs. Emma and
